Work Experience

January 1995 to Present: Personnel Management Specialist, with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, Rockville, Maryland. Lead Human Resource Specialist, with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Rockville, Maryland. Personnel Management Specialist responsible for providing guidance and advice to managers and employees on recruitment, classification, position management, personnel policies, benefits policies, and pay and leave policies. Provided guidance to, and reviewed the work of, a Personnel Assistant to ensure that personnel actions are processed accurately and timely. As Lead Human Resource Specialist, provide advice and guidance to five (5) Human Resource Specialists on my team. Coordinate distribute of monthly and special reports to Rockville HR Center Director. Attend meetings and make presentations to management and administrative employees.

January 1992 to January 1995: Personnel Assistant, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, Rockville, Maryland. Processed a wide variety of personnel actions. Conducted orientation for new employees and assisted employees with questions regarding health and life insurance benefits and the Thrift Savings Plan. Responded to employee inquiries on career tenure, probationary periods, and pay and leave

April 1991 to January 1992: Secretary, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment, Rockville, Maryland. Secretary to the Center Executive Officer. Drafted and typed correspondence, maintained calendar and scheduled meetings, created and maintained office files, processed time cards for the Executive Office, and ordered supplies for the Center. Tracked and coordinated responses to inquiries and ensured due dates were met.

January 1990 to April 1991: Class Coordinator/Supervisor, Keyboard Communications, Inc., Gaithersburg, Maryland. Worked as a contractor to the IBM Corporation. Responsibilities included processing student enrollments for IBM Management Development classes, creating class rosters and hotel lists, making hotel reservations, preparing post-class attendance reports and maintaining a tracking system for student participation. Supervised three Class Coordinators, two Assistant Coordinators, and three Secretaries. Balanced workload, audited timesheets for accuracy, conducted performance reviews, trained and counseled employees.

March 1978 to October 1989: IBM Corporation, Gaithersburg, Maryland 20879 and Bethesda, Maryland. Began as a Junior Secretary and progressed to Senior Secretary. Provided administrative support to contracts, programming, marketing and software development departments. Responsibilities included word processing, drafting documents, calendar management, and scheduling meeting and travel arrangements. Coordinated and supervised temporary personnel, served as liaison between IBM and temporary agencies, and audited temporary employee timesheets for accuracy. Maintained personnel files, processed payroll/award documents, prepared monthly activity reports, tracked appraisals and promotions. Served as Benefits Coordinator with responsibility for answering employee questions on medical benefits, coordinating health benefits open season activities, and preparing new employee information.

March 1968 to March 1978: Clerk-Typist, Montgomery County Public Schools, Rockville, Maryland 20850. As a Clerk-Typist, I was responsible for coordinating the typing and processing of catalog cards for library books and instructional materials used in Montgomery County Public schools. Rewrote instructions and implemented the automated system for the IBM MT/ST computer which was used to print catalog cards. This involved adapting procedures for data entry to ensure the format and spacing instructions resulted in proper alignment of printed information on the catalog cards. The cards were created for library books and other instructional materials used in the Montgomery County School system. Trained other employees in the new procedures.

Volunteer Experience: 1988 to 1993, member of East Rockville Community Action Team. Composed letters requesting local business support for the organization's programs and efforts to eliminate drug activity in the Lincoln Park neighborhood. As a member of Mt. Calvary Baptist Church Awards Committee, wrote two award justifications for individuals who made significant contributions to the youth of the community. 1999 to present, member of International Personnel Management Association (IPMA), Montgomery County Chapter. As chair of the newly established Education Committee for the IPMA, I established committee goals, wrote criteria for the tuition assistance plan, developed the application for the tuition assistance program, and wrote an article on the Education Committee program for the IPMA newsletter. 1997-1998, mentored middle school student through FDA's Office of Human Resource and Management Services Mentoring Program. 1998 to present, serve as mentor with the City of Rockville Mentoring Program. 1998 to present, life member of Blacks in Government, Parklawn Chapter.

To: Mayor and Council of the City of Rockville, MD
From: Sally L. Sternbach
Re: Reappointment of Directors to the Rockville Economic Development, Inc. (REDI) Board of Directors, and Appointment of Replacement Directors
Date: September 30, 2004

Background:

The Bylaws of Rockville Economic Development, Inc. (REDI) call for the Mayor and Council of the City of Rockville to appoint directors to the REDI Board.

Recommended Board Membership:

William F. Askinazi, Assistant Secretary, Maryland Department of Business and Economic Development, was appointed by the Mayor and Council in April, 2004 to fill out a term that expired in September, 2004. Becky Briggs, Owner of Our Gift Biz, was appointed by the Mayor and Council in April of 2003 for a term that expired in September, 2004. Stephen Cain, Dean of Community Education, Montgomery College, was appointed by the Mayor and Council in 2001 to a term that expired in September, 2004. Marc Sosin, owner of Ben & Jerry's, was appointed by the Mayor and Council in April, 2003 to a term that expired in September, 2004. The REDI Board of Directors voted unanimously at their September 2004 Board meeting to renew the terms of Mr. Askinazi, Ms Briggs, Mr. Cain, and Mr. Sosin. Their terms will expire in 2007.

The immediate Past President of the Rockville Chamber of Commerce serves on the REDI Board. Chamber office elections occur in September. The new immediate Past President of the Rockville Chamber is Clarice Somersall, Interim Vice President and Provost for the Takoma Park Campus of Montgomery College. The Board of Directors voted unanimously at their September 2004 meeting to recommend to the Mayor and Council the appointment of Ms Somersall.

Sandra Cavanaugh, Events Manager for SAS, was appointed to the Board by the Mayor and Council in April of 2003, with a term to expire in 2005. Upon her retirement from SAS in July 2004, she also resigned from the REDI Board. The Board of Directors voted unanimously at their September 2004 meeting to recommend to the Mayor and Council the appointment of Rosalie Bernstein, Branch Manager for Career Blazers, to fill the unexpired term.

The REDI bylaws allow up to 25 Board members. Currently, the number is 19. One of REDI's goals is to expand the diversity of its Board of Directors. To that end, the Board of Directors voted unanimously at their September 2004 meeting to recommend to the Mayor and Council the appointments of Daisy Wallace, President and CEO of Computer Technology Services (CTS), Inc., and of Firoozeh Azarbaijani Do, President of Phoenix TS Systems. Their terms will run until 2007.

The new agreement between REDI and the City of Rockville, signed on August 2, 2004, specifies that Arthur Chambers, Director of Community Planning and Development for the City, will be the City's representative on the REDI Board.

A new Board member list with information about Ms Somersall, Ms Azarbaijani Do, Ms Bernstein, Ms
